Dear [REDACTED]

It will be appreciated if you can obtain for me one copy of TR IM O-1 "Collection of Information for Intelligence Purposes", dated November 1954. As the responsible officer of this agency for Collection, Requirements and Coordination with the Intelligence Community I am naturally interested in any study which may improve my knowledge of this subject to which I have devoted the past eleven years.

In addition, I believe that I have made some slight contribution to this manual as a result of a rather lengthy conversation with the author when he was just beginning his work.

Sincerely yours,

Edward J. Carroll
